

MILESTONE LEVELS OF SUPPORT

Tricyclist — $5,000

Ensures that 800 babies will receive a months supplement of diapers

The number one predictor of maternal depression is Diaper Need. Now, I can avoid the depressing bar line and instead feel good about helping strengthen Idaho families.

Climber — $2,500

Clean nappies for 250 babies in a month

I don't have to give up my plans for tonight—yet I can help ensure those in need can plan on some much needed hygiene assistance.

Cruiser— $1,000

Ensures 100 babies will receive a months supplement of dry tinkle-poopers

No dress to buy or party pants to rent so I can keep things simple and help a family meet one of its most basic needs...hygiene.

Peekaboo — $500

New crinkle pants for 50 babies.

What? Food stamps can 't be used for diapers? I'll pass on a fancy dinner tonight so that another family can better juggle their food, shelter and hygiene needs.

Babbler — $250

Diapies for 25 babies in need

Tonight, I'll skip hiring the babysitter and direct my funds to help provide basic hygiene for babies and their families.

Cuddler — $50

There's nothing like a hug. Tonight, I'll skip the glitz and instead ensure that a baby receives an 8-month supplement of huggies.

Newborn - $25

I don't have to sit through a stuffy evening and I get to ensure babies don't have to sit in the same diaper all day long!
